

The 4th Annual IIEE Conference

In Pictures

The IIEE 4th Annual Young Entrepreneur's Conference May 1st, 2010, presented workshops, business plan competitions, The Youth Expo, Expo competition, nationally known keynote speakers, and networking for high school students studying or pursuing entrepreneurship. Here are some of the highlights.

Workshop Presenter, Debbie Lessin talks to students about the importance of paying taxes

Workshop Presenter, Carl Ankrum discusses using technology in business

Zachary Wilcutt from "Generation E" with Zachary's Compass Pocketbooks

Reuben Buford from Center for Teaching Entrepreneurship "Momma's Sweet Potato Pie"

(continued on next page)

Ida Manning with Isaac and Titus Lohr, from Generation E (Battle Creek , MI)

Jumpstart Competition Winners for the business "The Makeup Remover" (Richards H.S)

Kristy Hope from School of Entrepreneurship and her friends participate in the Business Showcase

Linda Yang and Jackie Yang discuss their skit for the Business Showcase

Opening Session speaker, Melissa Ballate, OwnerCEO of Blue Daring with Young Entrepreneur of the Year, John Nash

Conference Host, Demi Lobo, is always keeping it fun!

(continued on next page)

IIEE Representatives Phil Barreda and Kandi Conda, with Teacher-Preneur of the Year, Eugene Pope

Closing Session Keynote Speaker, Michael Scherer, CEO of Dreamvizion

IIEE Exec. Director Ida Manning,
Teacher-Preneur Eugene Pope,
Young Entrepreneur of the Year John Nash

